unbeatens left in Peach Belt play after handing the Falcons (9-5, 2-1 PBC) their first league loss of the year. USC Aiken, who won today over Georgia College, is the lone other unbeaten in the league at 5-0. Armstrong also extended its current regular season winning streak to 32 matches, dating back to 2012. That streak is the second-longest in Peach Belt Conference volleyball history.

Armstrong had another strong hitting performance on the day, hitting .382 as a team in the match and taking the first set by hitting .412 with 16 kills and only two errors in 34 attacks. The Pirates once again had only two errors in winning the second set comfortably, then hit .364 in the final set to clinch the match.

Sophomore Emily Wylie led a balanced offensive attack by the Pirates on the afternoon by hitting .474 with 10 kills and just one error in 19 attacks. Senior Stephanie Sfara, sophomore Rachel Thompson and sophomore Anna McGee each had nine kills apiece and Thompson hit .667 with just one error in 12 attacks. Senior Kamryn Sherman delivered 37 assists and Sfara led defensively with 12 digs.

Montevallo was led by Sarah Guidry's 11 kills and .370 hitting percentage. Briana Marquez tallied 21 assists and Carissa Bell notched 12 digs.

Armstrong returns to action on Wednesday, October 1st, visiting UNC Pembroke for a 7:00 p.m. Peach Belt Conference contest against the Braves in Pembroke, N.C.
